

Catherine Warburton

Catherine Warburton's artistic career began after she obtained a BA (Hons) degree in Fashion Textiles specialising in Embroidery from Manchester Polytechnic in 1984.

She exhibited at Manchester Academy Open Exhibition and then the London Royal Academy Summer Exhibition. Her work was spotted by the Anna-Mei Chadwick Gallery on the New Kings Road in Chelsea, London where she was offered her first solo show. Several shows followed and since then her work has been exhibited in many galleries around the country.

She now lives in Leeds where she is a member of Leeds Fine Artists and a regular exhibitor with the Roundhay Artists Open Studios. Her free flowing brushwork and bold use of colour captures the essence of the flowers, still life and landscapes she loves to paint.
